

April 2, 2008

Dear Affiliate Partner:

To assist you in complying with the reporting requirements for children's television and the requirement that stations air "core" children's programming, we are providing you with episode-specific descriptions (for QUBO Kids on NBC) as set forth in the attached Community Relations Quarterly Children's Programming Report for 1st quarter 2008. The report includes information to help prepare FCC Form 398. Please note that we have not included the specific dates and times for each of the programs as that may be station-specific.

This report is divided into the following categories:

1. Programming information for those stations airing NBC Weather Plus children's educational and informational programming and episode numbers.
2. Educational Objectives: QUBO for both the 1st quarter 2008 and 2nd quarter 2008.
3. Core programming: Regularly scheduled programming furnished by the NBC Network that is specifically designed to serve the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under.
Please note that the age target for QUBO programming on NBC is 4-8 years old. Each of these programs is identified on-air as educational and informational with the "E/I" icon, and is similarly identified to the national listing services. To assist stations with the preemption report section of the new FCC Form 398, we have added specific episode numbers.
4. Other programming: Programming furnished by the NBC Network that contributes to the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under, but is not specifically designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.
5. Public service announcements targeted to children 16 and under.
6. Non-broadcast efforts that enhance the educational and informational value of NBC Network programming to children.
7. Network on-air promotional efforts, which include a schedule of QUBO programming on NBC on-air promos.

The regularly-scheduled children's programming and promotional content furnished to you by the NBC Network during the 1st quarter of 2008 complied with the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act, provided that you broadcast and distributed such programming as furnished to you by NBC, and did not add any promotional or advertising content there to other than as directed by NBC via weekly postings on APT.

If you have any questions about these reporting requirements, please feel free to call us.

“QUBO ON NBC” EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

For 1st Quarter 2008

In compliance with the Children’s Television regulations, the QUBO Programming Block on NBC features an on-air icon indicating that each program is “educational and informational” for children. This icon is displayed at the beginning of each broadcast. Also, in compliance with the regulations, the following document, which includes “educational and informational” objectives of QUBO on NBC, must be placed in your public file.

Each of the programs listed below, which make up the QUBO programming block, is specifically designed to serve the “educational and informational” needs of children ages 4-8. All of the programs have educational objectives that are central to the content and appropriate to the program genre.

There are six returning shows from last quarter.

All shows were developed specifically for a target audience composed of children 4-8 years of age. Four of the shows are book-based series. Each show contains an important social-emotional message for the target audience, delivered through an animated narrative format.

Based on Mordecai Richler’s books, “Jacob Two-Two” is an animated show about the challenges of a little boy, the youngest of five siblings. Jacob is so small for his age that he often repeats himself just so he can be heard. His parents are compassionate, but his siblings are not, and Jacob has to be resourceful and inventive in learning how to assert himself, overcome his fears, get along with others, and still enjoy his childhood. He manages to turn even the most inconsequential events into adventures with his friends, Buford and Renee. Every adventure teaches him a life lesson, from learning how to be responsible to figuring out how to manage a bully. In addition, there are implicit lessons that promote a love for learning and language development usually conveyed through Jacob’s father, a full-time writer.

Inspired by children’s everyday life, “Dragon” is an animated show based on the book series of the same name by author and illustrator, Dav Pilkey. The show follows a little blue dragon as he faces everyday issues. Using a simple and direct approach to life, Dragon learns new information and develops new skills primarily through trial and error. Dragon is friendly and helpful, but he tends to see things from a unique perspective and sometimes that leads to trouble. As each story unfolds, the audience learns to see things in different ways, much like Dragon, and they learn how to problem-solve through ordinary challenges. Dragon shows how to take care of a pet, make new friends, or how to find the right hobby.

“My Friend Rabbit” is an animated show with two lead characters, Rabbit and Mouse, who work together to tackle challenges that are characteristic of the childhood experience. With each episode, Rabbit and Mouse, along with other friends, face a unique dilemma that compels them to think creatively about how to approach and solve their problem by trying out different solutions and persisting with new ideas when one fails.

“3-2-1 Penguins!” features two children – Jason and Michelle – whose vacation at their grandmother’s cottage ends up being more adventure than they expect when their toy spaceship with four toy Penguins comes to life. The children are sucked into the spaceship, where they meet the now live Penguins and journey through space to solve an inter-galactic disaster threatening the Penguins and their friends. Each story begins with a problem, a moral dilemma for one of the siblings that affects his/her relations with the other, and ends after the children have learned an important social-emotional message through their adventure. The show communicates messages on topics such as honesty, being patient with others, and avoiding jealousy.

“VeggieTales” is a show that draws upon characters from stories, which use both long and short form material to provide social-emotional messages to children. The children’s series features animated vegetables who teach life lessons through stories. Hosted by Bob the Tomato and Larry the Cucumber, each episode begins by establishing the problem, uses short stories to parallel the situation with a problem and solution, and ends by reiterating the proposed solution and the life lesson learned through the experience. The show communicates social-emotional messages based upon the core values of honesty, kindness, forgiveness, and appreciation for all, using music, unusual characters, and allegorical storylines.

Set in medieval times, “Jane and the Dragon” is an animated show that hails from Martin Baynton’s best-selling book about a middle-class girl named Jane. Jane is raised in the Royal Court as a Knight-in-Training after she demonstrates her courage by leaving the castle to conquer the local dragon. The giant green Dragon, whose sense of humor exceeds his ferocity, instead becomes Jane’s best friend and a part of the castle community. In each episode, Jane encounters a challenge that tests her problem-solving skills and requires her to demonstrate her strength of character as a Knight of the King’s Guard. Sometimes Jane learns a moral lesson, and other times she uses her analytical ability to illustrate how a problem can be made less complicated and easily solved.

For 2nd Quarter 2008

There are no new shows for the 2nd quarter 2008. All shows were developed specifically for a target audience composed of children 4-8 years of age. Four of the shows are book-based series. Each show contains an important social-emotional message for the target audience delivered through an animated narrative format.

1st Quarter 2008 Show Summaries:

JACOB TWO-TWO is a very little boy with a very big heart. As the youngest member of a large family, Jacob has to say things twice so he can be heard. He looks up to his siblings, but tends to be ignored or bullied by them when he tries to be a part of their activities. However, he does get noticed when he inadvertently lands himself in adventures that involve mysterious neighbors, international spies, and villains that come in all shapes and sizes. Often accompanied by his closest pals, Buford and Renee, Jacob Two-Two finds innovative ways to get in and out of hot water as he tumbles through a series of exciting adventures with honesty, integrity and a whole lot of determination.

DRAGON is a cheerful, lovable and curious blue dragon who lives in a colorful little house where all his friends and anyone else who needs comfort or advice are welcome. Every day, Dragon faces a new situation that needs to be solved, and he does it in his unique Dragon-like way. If he can’t get it right the first time, he keeps trying until he does. With each story, we find a new way to learn simple life skills through Dragon and his friends, Cat, Ostrich, Beaver, Alligator, and Mail Mouse.

MY FRIEND RABBIT models constructive problem-solving for young children, ages 4-8. In each episode, the story characters find themselves facing a different dilemma that is drawn from a typical childhood experience. Rabbit and Mouse usually lead us through creative problem-solving, which involves tenacity and working in teams. The group may figure out how to make the most of a bad situation, invent toys from everyday objects, solve some of nature’s riddles, respect their differences, or take care of others who need a little extra help. The characters specialize in converting a challenge into a social activity filled with optimism, creativity and humor. The series helps children learn to “think out of the box” by showing viewers how the characters work together to come up with possible solutions, and persist with new ideas when one solution fails.

3-2-1 PENGUINS! draws upon characters from two stories and uses both long and short form material involving these characters to provide social-emotional messages to children. The show features two children, Jason and Michelle, whose vacation at their grandmother’s cottage ends up being more adventure than they expect when their toy spaceship with four toy Penguins comes to life. The children are sucked into the spaceship, where they meet the now live Penguins and journey through space to solve an inter-galactic disaster threatening the Penguins and their friends. Each story begins with a problem and ends after the children have learned an important social-emotional message through their adventure with the Penguins.

VEGGIETALES is a show that draws upon characters from stories, which use both long and short form material to provide social-emotional messages to children. Narrated by animated veggies, Bob the Tomato and Larry the Cucumber, the show teaches life lessons through wit and humor. Each episode contains one or two short animated stories that illustrate core values to children in an entertaining way. Stories are interrupted with silly songs, usually sung by Larry the Cucumber, that contain whacky lyrics in a catchy tune. Each episode ends with Bob and Larry reinforcing the lesson learned through the stories.

JANE AND THE DRAGON is a coming-of-age story about a middle-class, medieval girl who lives in the Royal Court with her family. As an only child, Jane is raised to be a Lady-in-Waiting but through her determination and a stroke of luck, she ends up being trained as a Knight in the King’s Guard. Accompanied by her best friend, a giant green dragon that lives in her backyard, Jane experiences a series of adventures that test her character and her skills as a young knight in a castle full of friends and foes. Each episode in the show takes us through the problems and challenges Jane encounters and the process she goes through to find the solutions for them.

JACOB TWO-TWO

JACOB TWO-TWO AND THE SURPRISE DISGUISE (TWO128)

Jacob is excited about “Go to Work with Dad Day,” until it becomes apparent that there’s nothing exciting about watching Morty try to write. Morty’s efforts to start a new “Amazing Ronald” book are interrupted by a call reminding him of a scheduled book signing. When the actor hired to play “Amazing Ronald” doesn’t show, Jacob is pressed into service. After inadvertently helping two crooks, Fish and Fowl, steal all the copies of Morty’s new book, Jacob is taken into custody. He escapes and chases the crooks’ truck to their hideout, where they plan to put their own names on all the books and reap the profits. The police arrive, only to be captured by the crooks. Jacob captures Fish and Fowl and frees the officers. Later, Jacob relates his adventure to Morty, who assumes it’s a fictional story and uses it for the plot line of the next “Amazing Ronald” book. Jacob realizes that his dad’s job is not so boring after all.
